

Statement of Commitment

We believe that workplaces can make a difference in stopping violence against women.

Our aim is to be accredited as a White Ribbon Workplace.

The Purpose of this Statement of Commitment is to:

- Encourage greater understanding, knowledge and action around violence prevention within Water Corporation for the benefit of both the employer and all employees.
- Demonstrate that Water Corporation recognises violence against women as a human rights issue that must be addressed in the workplace.
- Commit to participate in the White Ribbon Australia Workplace Accreditation Program for the purpose of gaining accreditation as a White Ribbon Workplace.

Agreement

With the assistance and guidance of White Ribbon Australia, Water Corporation agrees to take the following key steps towards Accreditation:

1. Appoint Amanda Spiers as the senior manager responsible for carriage of Water Corporation's efforts to become an accredited White Ribbon Workplace. This appointment should be reflected in the job description and performance review of the appointee.
2. Work towards achieving Accreditation by 15 February 2019.
3. Adhere to all Standards and Criteria (unless agreed to otherwise) and provide evidence of adherence to Standards and Criteria on the White Ribbon Workplaces portal, complete self-assessment (of all three Standards), operational plan and follow-up survey to White Ribbon Australia as per the deadlines specified for the organisation's allocated Group.

Duration

This Statement of Commitment is at will and may be modified with the consent of Sue Murphy, CEO, Water Corporation. This Statement of Commitment is valid for the period as specified for the organisation's allocated Group. Deviation from the target date of Accreditation as specified above must be agreed in writing between White Ribbon Australia and Water Corporation.
