

NOTES

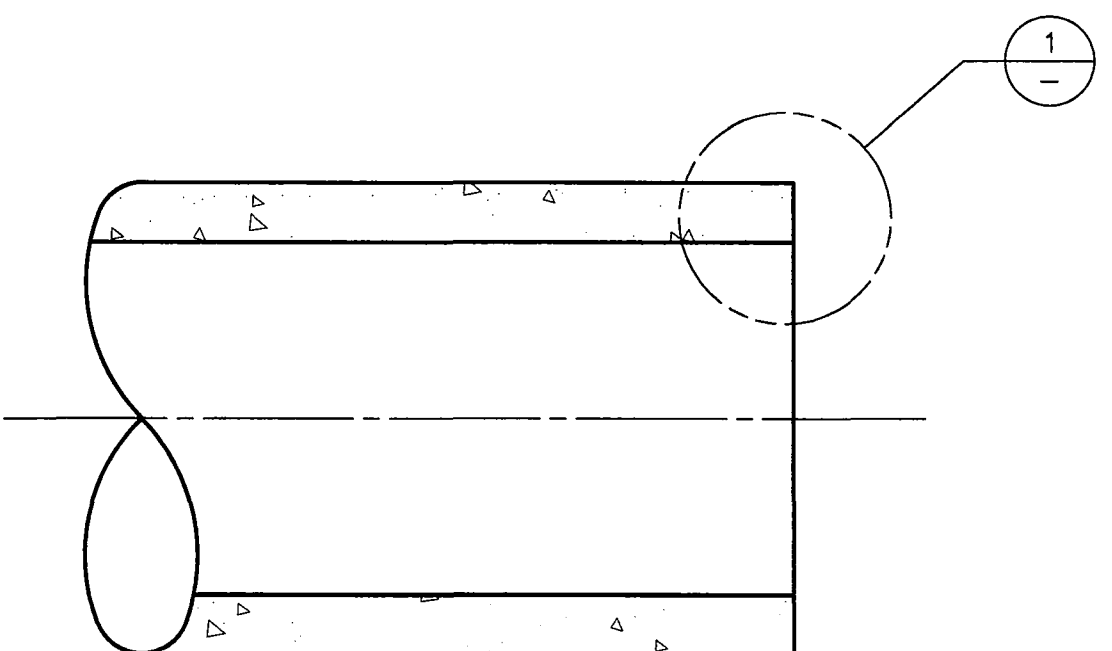

1. MATTING TO BE INSTALLED AT LOWEST PRACTICAL WATER LEVEL

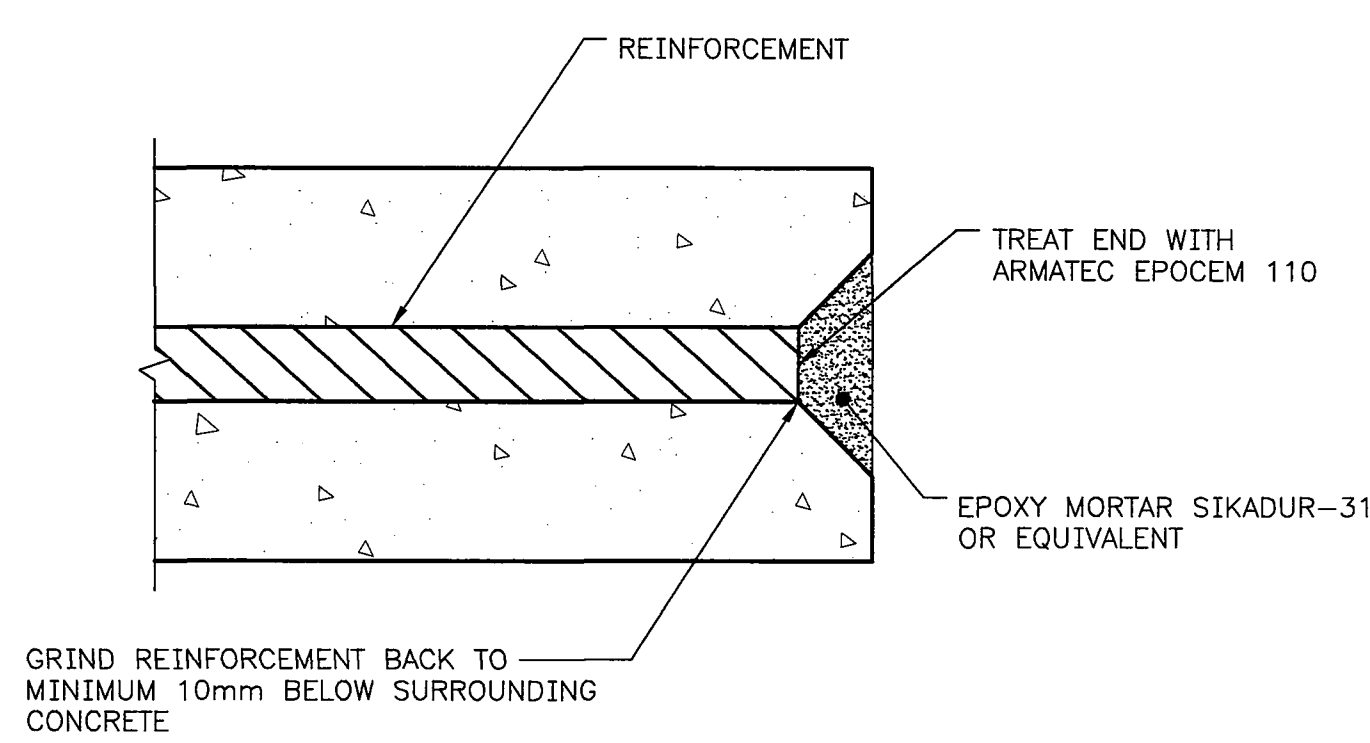

BASIN SLOPE STABILISATION DETAIL

CULVERT JOINT DETAIL

TYPICAL CONCRETE CUT PIPE

CUT PIPE END REPAIR

DETAIL 1

THE REQUIREMENTS SHOWN ON THIS DRAWING ARE MINIMUM. THE ADEQUACY OF THE DESIGN REMAINS THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE DESIGN ENGINEER.

SCALE : DIAGRAMMATIC

								DESIGN SURVEY NONE		VERTICAL DATUM NONE		DES. CALC A. ADAMS		NORTH POINT		ENGINEERING		RECOMMENDED A. Adams 20.03.2020				METROPOLITAN DRAINAGE URBAN MAIN DRAINAGE STANDARD – DRAWINGS MISCELLANEOUS DETAILS				ORIGINAL SHEET SIZE A1
								COORDINATE SYS NONE		DES. CHD J. DAVIES		PRINCIPAL ENGINEER						APPROVED Shivan 23/3/20										SENIOR PRINCIPAL ENGINEER
								ASCON SURVEY NONE		DES. REF		DRN J. SAUNDERS Q.C. CHD S. SELLATHURAI																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																																								</	